QUESTION ASKED BY A STATE PRISON INMATE.

JUST LIKE YOUR CHURCH

Impressions Made Upon William Job by a Sunday Service in the State Penitentiary.

January 24.—Editor Democrat-Forum: Sunday at Jefferson City has passed away very pleasantly. I, with several others, went to the state prison at 8:30 a. m. and was immediately admitted inside the wall and taken to the chapel, on the upper floor of one of the large buildings, on the east side of the open court. The stairs leading to the chapel are on the outside, and when reaching the landing at the head of the flight of stairs, you can look out over the stone wall at one of the prettiest natural pictures you ever saw. The meandering of the Missouri river through a fertile valley, with a background of grass covered hills and stone bluffs that stand up almost perpendicular, covered thinly with timber, dotted here and there with the evergreen cedar, stretching away as far as you can see. It is something grand. I can only imagine what it would be in the summer time, when everything is clothed in green. In my imagination many and many a homesick boy serving a term of years has climbed these stairs and looked out over the stone wall that shuts him in, and out over this beautiful stretch of country and longed for the day when he could be free to roam at will. On entering the chapel we were seated by a guard just back of the convicts. The chaplain was reading a letter to them from a former chaplain. They all listened very attentively. There must have been fifteen hundred inmates of the prison at the services, part of them colored, who sat at the left of the pulpit together.

The chaplain called upon the colored brethren for a song, who were led in singing by one of their number, and they sang "The old time religion, it was good enough for mother and it's good enough for me." There must have been seven hundred of them singing and they made the chapel ring.

The next was an overture by the orchestra, and followed by a piano solo. A vocal solo, accompanied by piano and violin, followed by piano and violin solo, were next. The colored quartet sang "Waith Till the Sun Shines, Nellie,' then came a selection by the Stone City string colored band. The instruments were two guitars, a mandolin and bass, followed by a vocal solo, accompanied by piano and violin. A number of patriotic selections, with cornet and piano, then "Lord Barrington," who murdered McCann some time ago, that you all read so much about in the papers, recited "The Grand Old Flag." He is a typical Englishman, and has a better opinion of himself than anyone has of him.

Following this they all sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee," led by the orchestra. The chaplain requested that the song books be distributed, and announced the selections. Among others was "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown?" "Was That Somebody You?" When fifteen hundred or more voices, led by a choir and accompanied by a cornet and organ, engaged in singing these songs I could see they were deeply affected; in fact, I could not keep back the tears myself.

The names of those that would be given their liberty during the week under the three-fourths rule were read, being eleven. Then followed the reading of the apostles' creed. The chaplain read the morning lesson. It was followed by prayer. They have a question box and any that wish to send up a question pertaining to the Scriptures for the chaplain to answer can do so. They were read aloud and answered. Among them was this question: If this ain't hell, then what is hell? meaning the prison. After the answering of questions the chaplain preached a good sermon, very appropriate for a place of the kind—just enough wit to keep their attention, but nothing he said was sugar-coated. It came straight from the shoulder, regardless of who it hit. The orchestra played while the prisoners marched out in single file. I stood where I could look into the faces of each one of the white men as they passed me. There are quite a number of good faces, but I could hardly believe that so many abnormal heads could have been selected in the state. More than 50 per cent of them have very irregular features and formations of the head.

I left the prison at 10:30, came down town for church at 11 o'clock, went to the capitol at 2 o'clock and listened to a sermon by the chaplain of the house in the assembly room. Went to the Presbyterian church in the evening. WILLIAM JOB.

TARIFF REVISION

CUMMINS DECLARES REVISION BY SCHEDULES IS DIVIDING LINE.

SMOOT IN OPPOSITION

Declares Agriculture is Too Big an Interest to Lose in Legislation—Passed Postoffice Bill.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The future dividing line in the Republican party was indicated in the senate in speeches of Senator Smoot (Utah) and Senator Cummins (Ia.), and the fact of this division was pointed out by the latter.

Closing a speech in opposition to the Cummins joint resolution for the amending of congressional rules regarding amendments to tariff bills, the Utah senator took ground squarely against schedule revision.

"I accept the challenge," said Cummins, "and am prepared to say that I believe that the division here outlined will constitute the issue of the future."

Referring to the fear expressed by those senators that the interests of the farmers would be imperiled by piecemeal legislation, Cummins said the time had come when agriculture would be the dominant interest in a majority of the states, rendering it certain farm products never would be discriminated against in the matter of legislation in the senate.

Flint (Cal.) called attention to the fact that in the last revision of the tariff Cummins had voted to put asphalt on the free list, which would have had the effect of destroying the asphalt interests in California.

Cummins said he had not felt under obligations to place such a tariff on asphalt as would permit the shipping of asphalt across the continent in order to protect a California industry.

House Passes Postoffice Bill.

The house passed the postoffice appropriation bill, carrying about $257,000,000, with no negative votes.

The postoffice committee of the house, the postmaster general and others "high up," including, by inference, the president of the United States, came in for a scoring at the hands of members of the house in consideration of the bill.

The debate reached its height when Representative Sisson (Miss.) said, with vigor:

"The mail service all over the United States is in a h— of a fix—to use a strong expression—and this house should fix the responsibility where it belongs. Some say it is the committee, some say it is the department and some say it is the president. The department has declined to spend the money appropriated for additional rural free delivery and is going to turn back a surplus of $1,700,000 from this service."

As soon as the rural free delivery service paragraph was reached in the bill, several members were on their feet offering amendments to increase the pay of the rural carriers from $900 a year all the way to $1,200. Chairman Weeks of the postoffice committee attempted to limit the debate, but the house would not hear of it.

Chairman Weeks said some of the rural carriers on the hard routes were underpaid. Others he thought were receiving all they deserved.

"However," added Chairman Weeks, amid great applause, "the committee is now willing to have the salaries of rural carriers increased $100 a year."

The house then passed an amendment providing that after July 1, 1911, the carriers should receive a salary not exceeding $1,000 a year.

Mrs. Wilfley's numbers were "O, Light Invisible," sung by Schumann-Heink; "Ah, So Pure," from "Martha," by Caruso; "Il Trovatore," sung by Caruso and Alda; "In Sweetest Accents," by Sembrich, and a sextet from "Lucia."

WILL BUY PLANT

BOND ISSUE AT BURLINGTON JUNCTION CARRIED TUESDAY.

SECURED FOR HALF PRICE

Owners of Electric Light Plant Sell to Municipality for Fifty Cents On the Dollar.

The special election held in Burlington Junction Tuesday for the purpose of taking and testing the sense of the voters of that town on the proposition of the city buying the electric light plant for $8,500 and issuing bonds for that amount, carried by 43 votes. The vote on the proposition was 151 yes and 54 against. It was necessary to have a two-thirds majority.

The electric light plant at Burlington Junction was installed about a year or so ago, and was owned by a number of the citizens of that town. The plant is well worth $15,000, and those who had stock in the company were willing to sell it, in case the city should buy the plant, for fifty cents on the dollar, so as to have a municipal plant.

The city will pay $8,000 for the plant and the rest of the amount, $500, will be used in running the light plant for the first month or so under municipal ownership.

One of the reasons that the stockholders wish to sell the plant was the fact that they were too busy to give the time and attention the business demanded. Many nearby towns will watch Burlington Junction to see how she will fare under municipal ownership.

DAVID G. PHILLIPS PASSES AWAY

Noted Author Succumbs to His Wounds After Favorable Day.

HEMORRHAGE OF RIGHT LUNG.

Novelist Takes Turn for Worse and End Quickly Comes—Senator Beveridge Will Have Charge of the Funeral Arrangements.

New York, Jan. 25.—David Graham Phillips died at 11:10 last night. He was conscious up to within a quarter of an hour of his death. At the bedside were his sister, Mrs. Carelyn Frevert; his brother, Harrison W. Phillips; his personal physician, Dr. Eugene Fuller, and Dr. Donovan of Bellevue. The immediate cause was hemorrhage of the right lung, which had been pierced by one of the steel-clad bullets from Goldsborough's automatic pistol.

Up to 9 o'clock the novelist was resting quietly and both physicians and relatives were hopeful of the outcome. He had been conscious all day and had received visitors, among them his sister, his brother, United States Senator Beveridge of Indiana and several writers of note. Their visits were extremely brief, but all who came away appeared optimistic.

Takes Turn for Worse.

After 9 o'clock the patient took a turn for the worse and although the surgeons did everything in their power, the end was inevitable.

Harrison Phillips announced that Senator Beveridge will have charge of the funeral arrangements. It is thought Phillips' body will be taken either to the Princeton club or to the National Arts' club.

The coroner issued a permit for the removal of the body without the formality of an autopsy.

About the time of Phillips' death the district attorney's office gave out excerpts from Goldsborough's diary, found on the sidewalk near his rooms. One entry, says, in part: "I believe D. G. Phillips is trying to fake a case against me or to do me serious bodily harm, or both."

BILL POSTERS MEET REBUFF

Showmen's Association Refuses to Agree to Advance.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—The showman's association and the American Bill Posters and Distributers of the United States and Canada parted company in the matter of renewing contracts. The showman's association includes all of the larger circuses in the country.

The latter declined to agree to an advance in pay for billing their attractions and declared that the bill posters' demands for free tickets in addition to cash were extortionate. An alleged demand on the part of the bill posters that the showmen agree not to deal with bill posters outside the association was also turned down on the legal ground that such an agreement would be in restraint of trade.

Other mediums of publicity, including newspapers and electric devices, will play a prominent part in future publicity campaigns, it is stated.

SCHENK CASE TO JURY

Defendant Sobs While Attorney Pleads Her Case.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 25.—Apparently unmoved by the bitter invective from Assistant Prosecutor Fred L. Murray in his opening argument before the jury which is trying the case against Laura Farnsworth Schenk, charged with administering poison to her husband, she broke down and sobbed almost continuously while her own attorneys—three of them—presented her side to twelve men, in whose hands her fate will rest today.

With the exception of a few occasions in the trial, when she dropped her head and blushed, Mrs. Schenk has borne up stoically throughout the long ordeal.

Plague Drives Many From Hankow.

Peking, Jan. 25.—The weekly express from Hankow was crowded with refugees. These included college professors, military officers, the Italian minister, minor diplomats and persons of means. The bubonic plague is the primary cause of the exodus.

MRS. THAW'S GEMS STOLEN

Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars' Worth Taken From Pittsburg Home.

Pittsburg, Jan. 25.—While the family of William Thaw, Jr., were at dinner the residence was robbed of jewels valued at $35,000. Included in the valuables is a pearl necklace worth $17,000, the property of Mrs. Thaw.

Mrs. Thaw had been to a closet where her jewels were kept half an hour before dinner, with a view to selecting those she would wear. Only her maid was in the room, and after locking the door Mrs. Thaw joined the family in the dining room.

She was absent perhaps thirty minutes and upon her return went to the closet for the pearl necklace. The door was locked, but when she looked for the necklace it was gone. Hastily opening the other cases she discovered all had been emptied of their contents.

Mrs. Thaw aroused the household and it was seen that the thieves had taken nothing but the contents of the closet. A hurried call was sent to the police and two score detectives, under the personal supervision of the superintendent, are working on the case.

When the detectives reached the house each servant was examined, but no information concerning the robbery was given. The police believe that someone well acquainted with the interior of the house entered by means of a skeleton key and with another key of the same character unlocked the door of the jewel closet.

Mrs. Thaw is a sister-in-law of Harry Kendall Thaw, who was tried for shooting Stanford White, the new York architect.

Reno, Nev., Jan. 25.—By a legislature Democratic on joint ballot by four votes, George S. Nixon (Rep.) was elected to succeed himself as United States senator from Nevada.

Enemies of President Lewis declare this is a defeat for him.

THE POPULAR LADY CONTEST.

Considerable Interest Being Shown in the Contest at the Crystal This Week.

Some new candidates were voted on last night at the Crystal, and much interest is shown in "the popular lady" contest. A fine gold watch will be given free Saturday night to the lady receiving the most votes during the week. This watch is guaranteed by Raines Bros. for twenty years. It is on display at their store. Call and see it. It is worth while to win such a prize as this.

The standing of the ladies who are being voted on was as follows at the close of the show last night:

Miss Bessie Dowding	28,100
Miss Maud Irwin	19,600
Miss Margaret O'Donnell	7,500
Mrs. Bert Rowley	2,000
Miss Hazel Smith	200

It is expected that this contest will become interesting toward the close of the week. Any contestant is entitled to sell tickets to her friends, and an order for any number of tickets will be given any contestant who wishes to give a little time to the cause. The watch is not a cheap toy, as you can find out by asking Raines Bros.

Tonight the Crystal Stock company will present "The Queen of the Slaves," a beautiful oriental play in four acts, with Miss Helen Hall as the queen. It is a spectacular play and the costumes are quaint and dazzling with a glimpse now and then of Uncle Sam's blue coats as seen on the battleship Brooklyn. The bill is an unusually strong one and will no doubt draw a good house. The play last night "La Belle Marie," was presented to a good house and met with general approval. When you go to the Crystal you get pictures, illustrated songs, song and dancing specialties, and a four-act comedy drama, all for the price of a picture show. Popular prices and big houses is the motto of the Crystal. "Who's the most popular lady?"

MEN WANTED.

No Man Over Forty-Five Need Apply.

There's a sign that's getting to be a common thing in America.

Corporations are retiring men at 50. They are not hiring any over 40.

A bald headed man often looks ten years older than he is.

A man with gray hair always does.

It is important nowadays that a man look as young as he is; it is vastly important that a man having a family dependent upon him should take care of his hair.

If you have dandruff—get rid of it by killing the garms.

If your hair is falling out—stop it.

If your hair is turning gray—don't waste any time.

There is one sure remedy that will cure these misfortunes and aid you to remain young.

Parisian Sage, the great Hair Restorer, is guaranteed to permanently remove dandruff in two weeks, or your money back.

Parisian Sage stops falling hair—it prevents the hair from turning gray.

Parisian Sage is sold and rigidly guaranteed by the Koch pharmacy and druggists everywhere. Price 50 cents a large bottle.

The probate court appointed Tuesday afternoon I. Earl Tulloch and Stephen A. Roach of Barnard administrators of the estate of Alfred W. Bear, who died last Saturday at his home in Barnard.

To-night
The Crystal Stock Co. presents
'Queen of the Slaves'
In 4 acts. With Miss Helen Hall as Zuleka.

CATARRH GOES.

So Does Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Croup and Asthma.

You can easily tell by reading the symptoms below whether you have catarrh or not:

Offensive breath, frequent sneezing, discharge from the nose, stoppage of the nose, huskiness of the voice, tickling in throat, droppings in throat, a cough, pain in chest, loss of strength, variable appetite, spasms of coughing, low spirited at times, raising of mucus, difficulty in breathing, loss of vital force.

The Orear-Henry Drug Co. has a sensible remedy (money back if it fails) for catarrh, called Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) which is a vaporized air, so antiseptic that when it is breathed over the inflamed and germ infested membrane, it kills all germ life, gives relief in two minutes, and cures catarrh.

The price, including hard rubber pocket inhaler, is only $1.00. The inhaler will last a lifetime, so that should you need a second bottle of Hyomei you can get it for 50 cents. Ask the Orear-Henry Drug Co.

INSURRECTOS ARE GAINING GROUND

Uprising in Mexico is Growing in Magnitude.

HOT FIGHTING NEAR OJINAGA.

Insurgents Reported Victorious in Two Engagements—United States Consul at Cuidad Juarez Says News Is Being Censored Strictly.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Advices reaching the revolutionary representatives here declare that the uprising in Mexico is growing rapidly in magnitude. A telegram received from the chief of staff of General Madero, dated from "headquarters in the field," confirms the news dispatches of the brisk fighting near Ojinaga. The telegram says:

"Complete victory for the insurgents, led by Colonel Ortega, near Ojinaga. Defeated federals and killed 150 out of 200. Another victory near Casa Grande obtained by Casillas, with 300 insurgents, against federals led by Colonel Rabago.

"Casa Grande and railroads are at the mercy of the insurgents. General Navarro is completely cut off and there is no news from him.

"Insurgents hold a strong position between Navarro and Chihuahua. Durango has joined Chihuahua and Sonora against Diaz. Near Torreon, insurgents have 500 men well armed. They recently defeated federals, killing one of their leaders, a son of Colonel Gonzales."

The dispatch closes with the statement that the insurgent movement has gained victory within the last month.

The fact that the federal forces of Mexico suffered heavy losses in engagements with revolutionists near Galena and that they are still calling for reinforcements was reported to the state department in a telegram from the United States consul in Ciudad Jaurez.

News of the actual situation, the consul adds, is being strictly censored.

AEROPLANE BURNS IN MIDAIR

Danish Aviator Descends in Time to Avoid Serious Injury.

Copenhagen, Jan. 25.—Svendens, the Danish aviator, while flying in a Voison aeroplane, discovered while at considerable height that his machine was on fire.

The first intimation he had of the fact was when the spectators shouted to him. At the outset he paid no attention to the cries which reached him from the ground, but at last he realized something was wrong and looking around, saw flames bursting from the framework of his aeroplane. Descending as quickly as possible, he reached the earth just in time to avoid serious injury. The machine was destroyed.

THERE'S NO RISK.

If This Medicine Does Not Benefit You Pay Nothing.

A physician who made a specialty of stomach trouble, particularly dyspepsia, after years of study perfected the formula from which Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are made.

Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be the greatest remedy known for the relief of acute indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The relief they afford is almost immediate. Their use with persistency and regularity for a short time brings about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will insure healthy appetite, aid digestion and promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well
